South Central Wisconsin United to Amend
Bylaws

Article 1: Name of Organization

The name of this organization is South Central Wisconsin United to Amend, Inc. (hereinafter “SCWUTA”).

Article 2: Purpose

The purpose of SCWUTA is to provide education about, and to promote passage of, an amendment to the US Constitution specifying that under that constitution corporations are not persons and that money is not a form of speech.

Article 3: Membership

Section 3.1: Qualification. Membership is open to anyone interested in pursuing the purpose of the organization.

Section 3.2: Types of Membership. SCWUTA shall have three types of membership, defined as follows:

(a) General membership shall include anyone who has signed a SCWUTA petition or indicated an interest in participating in events or activities sponsored by SCWUTA.

(b) Voting membership shall include anyone who has, within the previous 126 days, attended two or more SCWUTA meetings or events in which SCWUTA participated, or served SCWUTA in some other substantive way.

(c) Attending membership shall include anyone who has, within the previous 126 days, attended two or more SCWUTA meetings.

Article 4: Officers

Section 4.1: Enumeration. Officers of SCWUTA shall be a Chair, a Vice-Chair, a Treasurer, a Vice-Treasurer, a Secretary, and a Vice-Secretary. Only voting members are eligible to be officers.

Section 4.2: Executive Board. The officers constitute the Executive Board of SCWUTA.

Section 4.3: Vacancies in Office. If an office falls vacant, it may be filled temporarily by appointment by the Executive Board. It shall be filled for the remainder of the term of office at the next regular election under Article 5.

Article 5: Elections

Section 5.1: Summer. Nominations for Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary shall be made during May for election at the first regular meeting in June.

Section 5.2: Winter. Nominations for Vice-Chair, Vice-Treasurer, and Vice-Secretary shall be made during November for election at the first regular meeting in December.

Section 5.3: Nominations. Self-nominations are permitted. Nominations need not be seconded. Each nominee must explicitly accept the nomination prior to the election.

Section 5.4: Eligible Voters. Officers of SCWUTA shall be elected by the voting membership.

Section 5.5: Term of Office. The term of office shall be from the end of the meeting at which the election occurs until the end of the corresponding meeting the following year.

Article 6: Duties of the Officers

Section 6.1: Chair. The Chair is responsible for overseeing the work and activities of SCWUTA, setting the agendas for and facilitating general meetings, representing SCWUTA on ceremonial occasions, serving as SCWUTA’s official spokesperson, and making all appointments not otherwise provided for.

Section 6.2: Treasurer. The Treasurer is responsible for maintaining, managing, and reporting the financial records of SCWUTA and carrying out financial actions as approved by the membership. A financial report will be made by the Treasurer at each general meeting.

Section 6.3: Secretary. The Secretary is responsible for taking, archiving, and disseminating minutes of general meetings and for maintaining a current roster of voting members.

Section 6.4: Vice-Officers. The vice-officers are responsible for assisting their respective officers and substituting for them when they are unable to perform their duties.
Article 7: Officer Discipline

Section 7.1. Principle. SCWUTA officers and team leaders are the public face of SCWUTA and must conduct themselves in accordance with the organization's stated objectives, democratic processes, fair play, honest dealings, and socially accepted standards of civil discourse and behavior. They are accountable to the membership for deviations from this expectation.

Section 7.2. Penalties. There are 3 possible penalties that may be applied to officers and team leaders:

(a) Reprimand: official disapproval of the stated conduct.
(b) Censure: strong official disapproval of the stated conduct, combined with public disavowal of it.
(c) Removal: stripping the person of her or his office. Such removal does not result in loss of membership in the organization nor in disqualification from holding any future such position.

Section 7.3. Introduction. A motion to apply a penalty may be made at any meeting by any voting member. It must state the reasons for the proposed action and the specific penalty sought.

Section 7.4. Timing. No such motion may be adopted unless the person who is the object of the discipline has had an opportunity to speak in her or his own defense, or until the 3rd meeting following its introduction, whichever occurs first.

Section 7.5. Voiding. If the person who is the object of such a motion resigns her or his position, the motion shall immediately be voided.

Section 7.6. Adoption. A motion of reprimand or censure may be adopted by majority vote at the first available meeting consistent with "Timing" above. A motion of removal may not be adopted at such a meeting but only at the following meeting, provided the motion is included in the meeting notice; it requires a 3/5 vote.

Section 7.7. Amendment. Any disciplinary motion may be amended by majority vote to provide for a lesser penalty, but not for a greater one.

Article 8: Teams

Section 8.1: General. Team names, duties, and procedures shall be specified in the Standing Policies.

Section 8.2: Rosters. Formal team rosters are kept by the Secretary.
Section 8.3: Reports. Team reports will be a regularly scheduled part of each general meeting agenda.

Article 9: General Meetings

Section 9.1: Quorum. The quorum for a general meeting shall be a number of voting members equal to the greater of 7 or 25% of the attending members.

Section 9.2: Schedule. The schedule for general meetings is established yearly at the time of the December officer elections. The schedule may be altered by majority vote at a general meeting. Such a change must be communicated to the membership at large within one week of the vote to alter the schedule.

Article 10: Amendments

Section 10.1: Governing Documents. The governing documents of SCWUTA are these Bylaws and the compendium of Standing Policies.

Section 10.2: Introduction. Provisions of a governing document may be amended (adopted, repealed, replaced, or revised) at a general membership meeting, provided that:

(a) The explicit text of any proposed amendment must be presented in writing.
(b) The proposal must explicitly state which governing document it is intended to amend.
(c) The proposal may be discussed at the meeting at which it is introduced, and it may be amended at that meeting, but it may not be voted on until a later meeting.
(d) The notice of the meeting at which the vote is to occur shall include mention of the proposed amendment.

Section 10.3: Adoption. The vote needed shall be:

(a) a majority to amend the proposed amendment itself.
(b) 3/5 to amend the Bylaws.
(c) a majority to amend the Standing Policies.

Section 10.4: Technical Amendments. The secretary is empowered to number, entitle, arrange, punctuate, and properly spell the governing documents for ease of understanding and use, but such technical revisions shall be without substantive effect.
